

Portfolio Management

The tradition of House System is an important part of school education. The system is essentially the backbone of the discipline of the school. It provides opportunities for students to develop all aspects of their growth and learning i.e. personality, morality, creativity, knowledge and skills. It promotes values of fair play, teamwork, camaraderie, citizenship, mutual responsibility, self discipline, initiative, perseverance and resilience. Participation in House activities contributes to excellence in academic, social, sporting and cultural fields. The House system is all about unlocking student potential and creating a sense of belonging, identity and pride.

There are five Houses namely Enterprise, Dignity, Freedom, Courage and Modesty. Students are grouped according to following classes.
